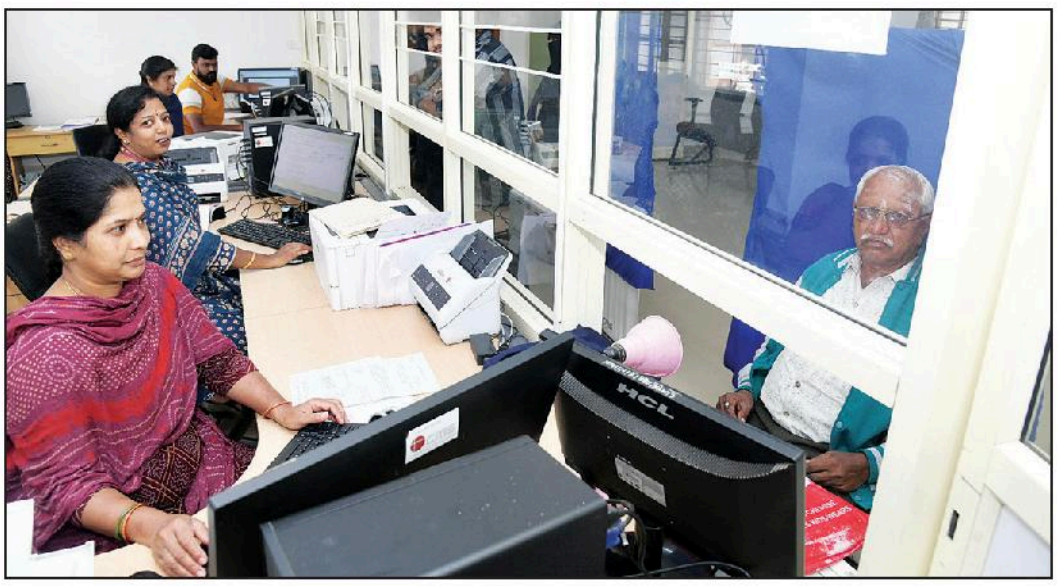
Property registration fee increased from 1% to 2% of overall value

100% Fee Hike...

With effect from tomorrow



The Sub-Registrar's Office at Mini Vidhana Soudha in Nazarbad this morning.

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (RK&BCT)- Buying or registering property in Karnataka will become costlier starting tomorrow (Aug. 31), as the State Government has doubled the registration fee.

Until now, the fee stood at 1 percent of the property value, but from Aug. 31 it will be levied at 2 percent.

This decision has been taken in the wake of the Department of Stamps and Registrations, consistently falling short of its revenue targets during 2024-25 and the first quarter of 2025-26.

Earlier, the State levied a 5 percent stamp duty on the guidance value of a property, a 1 percent registration fee, a 0.5 percent cess and a 0.1 percent surcharge, adding up to 6.6 percent. With the registration fee now doubling to 2 percent, the total fee payable for property transactions will rise to 7.6 percent from tomorrow, Sunday.

The Department of Stamps and Registrations has struggled to meet its financial targets for two consecutive years. Against a target of Rs. 26,000 crore in 2024-25, the Department collected only Rs. 22,500 crore.

For 2025-26, the annual target has been set at Rs. 28,000 crore, but in the first quarter ending June 30, collections were already short by 35 percent compared to projections.

Guidelines for applicants

To ensure a smooth transition to the revised rates, the Department has issued instructions for applicants.

Fake accident claim menace returns?

Sir,

A few months ago, it was reported that the Police had arrested a gang, faking accidents targeting senior citizens driving their four-wheelers alone. It now appears that the same gang has resurfaced or that another group is adopting a similar modus operandi.

It was Sunday evening (24.8.2025), around 6 pm, I was driving my four-wheeler and took a left turn onto New Kantharaj Urs Road (Akshaya Bhandar stretch) from Vishwamanava Double Road at Vijaya Bank Circle.

As it was a Sunday evening, the traffic was very sparse. After taking the turn, I heard a faint sound behind my car. I immediately checked the rear-view mirror but noticed there was no vehicle in sight.

A few minutes later, a two-wheeler followed me and stopped my car near the Poorvika showroom, claiming that I had hit his vehicle. As I rolled down the passenger-side window to speak to him, he suddenly got into the passenger seat and continued his argument.

Since I was absolutely certain that my vehicle had not come into contact with any other, I told him clearly that I had neither been part of nor witnessed any accident, contrary to his claim. During the exchange, he even received a phone call and informed the caller about his location.

After arguing for a while, he demanded Rs. 3,000. I firmly insisted on going to the nearest Police Station since I had a dash camera installed in my car. The argument dragged on for about 10 minutes, after which he reduced his demand to Rs. 1,000. I once again insisted that we resolve the issue at the Police Station. Following more heated words, he eventually left the spot. Amidst this commotion, I unfortunately forgot to note down his vehicle number, and the same was not captured in the dash camera either.

This incident makes me believe that many senior citizens driving alone could be facing similar harassment. I urge the Police to keep a strict watch on such gangs. As a senior citizen myself, I am deeply concerned about my safety.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

THE PRESENT IS A GREAT GIFT: Sayings often speak volumes. One of them goes, 'There are two days one can't do anything about — yesterday and tomorrow.' It is clear enough that 'yesterday' refers to the past and 'tomorrow' stands for the future.

This is so because the past is gone and nothing can be done to change it; the future, on the other hand, is yet to come and is completely unknown. What we have is the 'present' and therefore we should make every effort to make it useful and worthwhile.

By and large, it must be said, that most of us cling to the past, bring it alive in our minds, wallowing in it at times. This is specially so if we have been misunderstood, abused or otherwise treated badly. It needs strict discipline to look only at positive moments and take courage and encouragement from them. Others immerse themselves in building a rosy future. They become workaholics, are busy making money, even though they have to ride roughshod over others. They do not realise that their plans can backfire without any warning.

The past and the future are only inventions. Both of them are quite out of reach and neither can be changed. We are left with what we call the 'present.' What, however, is the 'present'? The Dalai Lama has answered this question with characteristic simplicity and beauty. He has pointed out that when we are able to think of the present, it has already become the past and when we think about a point of time even slightly ahead, it is the future. We may reduce this difference into very small units like nanoseconds, but it still remains the future.

Going by this logic, we are forced to conclude that there is no 'present.' In terms that are perfectly logical, there is only 'timelessness.'

Those who claim that they are living in and for the present are actually living in 'timelessness.' They do not care about the past or the future and indeed even the present. They live in uprightness; they value the opportunity that they have to live Life honorably. They raise themselves from the worries of the past, present and the future. For them, the 'present' is indeed a great gift!

Invasion of privacy by Pharmacy

Beijing: A married man is considering suing a pharmacy after it contacted his wife over a failed e-payment for contraceptive medicine which ended up revealing his extramarital affair.

The scorned man, whose name has not been revealed by the media, visited the Pinggang branch of Dashenlin Pharmacy in Yangjiang, Guangdong province, where he attempted to pay 15.8 yuan ($2.2) for birth control pills using his mobile app. Due to "system problems," the transaction did not go through, but the pharmacy staff only noticed after he had left the branch, so they tried texting the phone number listed on his membership card. However, the number was his wife's and when she asked about the nature of the purchase, the pharmacy employee explicitly confirmed that it was for contraceptive pills. The husband claims that by disclosing this vital piece of information to his wife, the pharmacy ruined his marriage and that of his mistress.

Lady accused of husbands killing-spree

Tehran: 56-year-old Kolsum Akbari stands accused of poisoning and killing 11 husbands over a period of 22 years, but she claims the number could be even higher; she just doesn't remember exactly.

For more than two decades, Kolsum Akbari alias Black Widowwas able to get away by marrying elderly men and poisoning them with diabetes drugs and industrial alcohol so she could inherit their wealth. She also operated in various cities to avoid attracting attention. Her killing spree began in 2000 and went on till 2023, when the son of her last victim, 82-year-old Gholamreza Babaei alerted the Police.

She now stands accused of killing 11 husbands, but the black widow herself claims the number could be between 13 and 15.

Neglected M.G. Road restored, thanks to President's visit

Sir,

M.G. Road is one among the many arterial roads in Mysuru city that is battered and bruised far too often. There always seems to be some work underway on this stretch throughout the year, making one wonder whether the Public Works Department is on the job or if an archaeological excavation is in progress.

The worst comes once the so-called "work" is completed. After months of dragging on at a leisurely pace, the closure happens in a hurry — the workers vanish overnight, leaving behind a patchwork of sand and gravel. The road is then left to the manoeuvring skills of motorists to avoid accidents. For proper restoration with tar, the road must usually wait until next election.

A classic example is the stretch near the Ramanuja Road intersection, where underground pipe work kept the road in a dilapidated state for months. But suddenly this week, the road has been given a fresh coat of tar, and all the potholes have miraculously disappeared. At first, one might wonder if a by-election has been announced.

A glance at Star of Mysore clarified the reason: President Droupadi Murmu's limousine and her convoy are set to drive from Radisson Hotel to AIISH via M.G. Road next week.

Even during the visits of the CM, Deputy CM and other VIPs in the past, this road did not get such attention. It seems to have earned the unique distinction of being restored only for the President's visit!

It is truly pathetic that the common man is left to struggle for months on end, while roadworks are undertaken at lightning speed for a few minutes of VIP travel. Still, as the saying goes, better late than never!

'Muslims, integral part of Dasara'

Activist Abdul Razak makes a mention of historical records to defend writer Banu Mushtaq's selection to inaugurate Dasara-2025

Abdul Razak

Bengaluru, Aug. 30 (Agencies)- Amid the raging debate over the selection of International Booker Prize Winner Banu Mushtaq, for the inauguration of Nada Habba Mysuru Dasara-2025 scheduled from Sept. 22 to Oct. 2, with pro-Hindu and BJP leaders, raising voice of dissent, Muslim leaders and activists have come out in support of the State Govt.

Abdul Razak, a Muslim activist, has cited historical records, which has a mention of Islamic historians being the first to document about Dasara way back in 1442. Moreover, it is Muslims again, who are involved in mounting the Golden Howdah on elephant, for Jumboo Savari.

Reacting to media reports, Razak said, "Banu Mushtaq, can be described as a proud Kannadiga for bringing the coveted honour of International Booker Prize to Kannada. The woman, who brought honour at the international level, has been considered for Dasara honour by the CM. Hence, fatwa cannot be issued in these matters."

As a Dewan, Sir M. Mirza Ismail has made elaborate contributions to Bengaluru. Didn't the Wadiyar of Mysore invite Mirza Ismail for Dasara? The tradition of herding Dasara elephants to Imam Dargah, prior to Jumboo Savari, is still in practice, argued Razak. When there was no issue during the year, when poet K.S. Nissar Ahmed was selected to inaugurate Dasara, former MP Prathap Simha is creating unwanted fuss only to be in news all the time, he retorted.

Fatwa Institutions nod must: Moulana

On the other hand, Moulana Dr. Mohamed Maqsood Imran Rashadi, Chief Imam of Jamia Masjid, has said, while there is no objection for Banu Mushtaq participating in Dasara, she has to seek the permission of Fatwa Institution, prior to performing puja to the Goddess.

Dr. Maqsood

"There is nothing wrong in attending the puja, while priests or others shall be performing puja rituals. However, if there is a practice of actively performing puja rituals to the Chamundi or taking aarti, permission has to be sought from Fatwa Institution. However, it is left for the prerogative of the Institution to decide, as I can only advise Banu Mushtaq," he said.

Yaduveer seeks clarification from Mushtaq on Kannadambe

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (BS)- Close on the heels of finding no fault in the selection of writer Banu Mushtaq, to inaugurate Dasara, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, has made a U-turn.

Yaduveer

Yaduveer, speaking to media persons yesterday has said, Banu Mushtaq, should first clarify about her earlier statement on Kannadambe. If not, there is an objection to Mushtaq inaugurating Dasara.

"I saw the video clip of her earlier speech on Kannadambe, for which she has to either issue a clarification or withdraw the statement. I go by the party's stand," said Yaduveer.

No issue, if Banu Mushtaq inaugurates Dasara with...

Hubli, Aug. 30 (Agencies)- Former Mysuru-Kodagu MP Prathap Simha, in a sarcastic tone, asked whether the Goddess Chamundeshwari, adorned with arishina-kumkuma on her forehead, will be accepting Banu Mushtaq, when it was not possible for her to enter the Mosque.

Prathap Simha

Participating in Ganeshotsava organised at Edgah Grounds here, Simha, who claimed to be having immense respect for Mushtaq, however, questioned 'was it necessary to select Banu Mushtaq, for the inauguration of Mysuru Dasara, which is considered as a crown of Hindu religion.'

There are no qualms, if Banu Mushtaq inaugurates Dasara, sporting arishina-kumkuma on her forehead and wears flower in hair, said Simha.

'Stop playing politics over Dasara'

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (BLU&BS)- Member of erstwhile Mysore Royal Family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar has said, politics in the name of Dasara festival so far, was more than suffice and is better to stop at this juncture.

Pramoda Devi

Speaking to media persons here this morning, Pramoda Devi said: "I don't want to comment on the Government's decision on selecting the inaugurator for Dasara. The matter is purely between them."

Reiterating her stand on Dasara celebrated by erstwhile Royal Family and the Govt., Pramoda Devi said: "Government-sponsored Dasara is not a part of our tradition. We continue to celebrate Dasara privately and the Government does on its own, with no association between the two separate events."

Saying it loud and again that, Chamundi Hill belongs to Hindu community, Pramoda Devi said, the deity, a Hindu, is the house deity of Yadu Vamsha (to which Wadiyars belong to). Chamundeshwari, is akin to mother and all puja rituals at the temple are conducted as per Hindu tradition. "Let the politicians say whatever they want to, nothing happens as they desire. There is a legal dispute over the matters related to temple, still being heard by the Court. Though, an Authority has been constituted, it is invalid, as a clarity can be obtained only after Court awards a judgement. It has been 70 years since we are fighting the legal battle, but feel disappointed over how the temple was drawn to score a political point," she rued.

Goats, Votes, Buses, Jumbos & Dumbos

If you are among the unlucky thousands who commute daily through Bannimantap Main Road, you've probably realised by now that this stretch is less of a road and more of a seasonal circus.

Depending on the month, you're either dodging elephants, squeezing between goats or being dazzled by Homo sapiens behaving like Simians under decorative lights.

Soon, this three-month circus will become a 12-month nightmare as the Government shifts KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand to this location.

Every year, for a whole month, Bannimantap Main Road transforms into a rehearsal ground for Dasara elephants. Twice a day, the jumbos march solemnly down the road. Traffic behind them, however, is anything but solemn.

Cars crawl impatiently, bikers slither like snakes to avoid elephant dung and selfie enthusiasts abandon all sense of safety to park and take a pic with the elephants.

Once the elephants have retreated, Bannimantap slips into its next identity: The boulevard of lights. For an entire month after Dasara, the road is ablaze with grand illuminations. And with lights comes traffic.

Mysuru motorists, faced with a glowing street, suddenly believe they're in a film set. Cars stop abruptly, families line up in the middle of traffic for photos and teenagers block lanes while recording reels for Instagram.

As if jumbo jams and illumination jams weren't enough, Eid season brings one end of the Bannimantap Main Road to a standstill as the sheep market begins.

At the landmark Millennium Circle (LIC Circle), the very first landmark tourists see upon entering our so-called 'Royal City,' is a sheep market !

Tempos unload goats and sheep, autos cart them away, food stalls pop up and haggling happens all around.

A tourist might expect Mysuru air to smell of 'Mysore Mallige' or sandalwood, instead they are welcomed with the smell of goat droppings.

Instead of moving this temporary market into the nearby 'dead' Bal Bhavan, the Government wants to add to this chaos by relocating Mysuru's Sub-Urban Bus Stand to this busy road !

Currently, the Sub-Urban Bus Stand handles 2,400 services daily and more than 3,000 during Dasara.

Yes, the very road that is already alternately blocked by elephants, goats and Instagrammers will now be asked to absorb thousands of buses.

Moreover, this road is closed for two days during Dasara for procession and Torchlight Parade, then where will buses go? Where will bus commuters go?! Will the Bus Stand be shut?!

The Government insists this move is necessary as acquiring new land would take too long. Immediate action is required, they say. Really?

This is the same Government that swiftly took over Bangalore Palace land, even defying the Supreme Court, but suddenly can't take over a few acres of its own land in Mysuru?

The dead land that exists right near the current Sub-Urban Bus Stand, the Government Guest House campus.

The truth is, the existing location is ideal. Mysore Palace, Devaraja Market, K.R. Hospital, major educational institutions and the City Bus Stand are all within walking distance.

Move the Bus Stand to Bannimantap and suddenly lakhs of ordinary commuters, most of them poor, will be forced to spend extra money on autorickshaws just to reach their destinations, the same destinations they could earlier reach by foot or city buses.

So much for a Government that keeps reminding us that it is always thinking about the poor. Looks like this Government is always thinking about itself... by thinking of its vote-bank?

Obviously, when everything and everyone is indicating towards a negative outcome for this relocation, why is our Government so hell bent on building the Bus Stand on Bannimantap Main Road?

When there are no answers to these obvious questions, then rumours come alive. When logic fails, speculation thrives and questions arise, such as: Is it another vote-bank scheme?

Unsurprisingly, Opposition Leaders whisper that this relocation has less to do with buses and more to do with votes.

They say, since Bannimantap is dominated by a particular community, shifting the Bus Stand here could bring financial benefits to local businesses, which in turn could bring electoral benefits to the ruling Congress party.

While no one will confirm it outright, the suspicion lingers. And if true, it's a tragic reminder that in Karnataka, even Bus Stand locations are dictated by vote-bank politics.

For now, people in Bannimantap may see their real estate value go up like the stairway to heaven, but their main road will look like a highway to hell and for the commuters, three months of chaos is about to become a 12-month ordeal.

The bigger picture is, what does this relocation say about Mysuru's urban planning? That there is none?

We have to ask, between the urban planners, buses, goats and jumbos, who are the real dumbos? The Bannimantap Bus Stand plan indicates it is certainly NOT the ones with tusks or horns.

Cauvery Aarti at KRS

stuck in legal net, no show this Dasara

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (RK&DM)- With the Karnataka High Court staying the State Government's plan to conduct Cauvery Aarti at Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) reservoir near Belagola in Srirangapatna taluk, it now appears highly unlikely that the Government's ambitious 'Cauvery Aarti' project will be executed by this year's Dasara.

Earlier this year, Government had announced its decision to perform 'Cauvery Aarti' on the lines of the famed 'Ganga Aarti' at Varanasi and Prayagraj in Uttar Pradesh, at an estimated cost of Rs. 92 crore.

Alongside, it also unveiled plans to develop Brindavan Gardens into a mega Amusement Park under Public-Private Partnership (PPP) model, at a cost of over Rs. 2,600 crore.

However, the announcement triggered sharp opposition from local farmers, farmer associations and environmentalists, who filed two separate petitions before the Karnataka High Court. The petitioners argued that both projects posed a serious threat to the Dam's safety and the surrounding ecology.

Hearing the two petitions, the High Court clubbed them together, as they pertained to the same project site. In its previous hearing, the Court stayed both the 'Cauvery Aarti' and Amusement Park projects and posted the next hearing for Sept. 1.

With the stay in place and Mysuru Dasara just over three weeks away, hopes of launching the 'Cauvery Aarti' project this festive season have all but evaporated. Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited (CNNL) KRS Circle Executive Engineer Jayant confirmed to Star of Mysore yesterday that the HC stay applies to both projects.

He admitted that, given the scale of the planned Aarti, it would take more than a year to execute the project with all necessary facilities and infrastructure. A new connecting bridge to the identified spot must first be constructed, which involves detailed planning and approvals, while additional facilities, too, would require considerable time.

Meanwhile, it is learnt that a group of elected representatives from Mandya district, along with District Administration officials, recently held a meeting at the hotel in Brindavan Gardens to discuss both Dasara celebrations and the 'Cauvery Aarti' plan.

Before the meeting, they inspected the proposed Arati site at KRS Reservoir. Discussions reportedly centred on the need for the Government to submit documents before the High Court to justify the projects and seek the lifting of the stay. The Government, it is learnt, is preparing to argue strongly in favour of both projects, which it believes will provide a major tourism boost to Mandya.

Venue: Torchlight Parade Grounds, Bannimantap

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (VNS)- This Dasara promises a bonanza for spectators at the Torchlight Parade Grounds in Bannimantap. In addition to the famous Torchlight Parade and the recently announced Dasara Air Show, the venue will also host the much-anticipated Dasara Drone Show, which was a runaway hit last year.

Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy chaired a preliminary meeting at Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) Head Office in Vijayanagar yesterday to discuss arrangements for the Drone Show and Dasara Illumination.

During the meeting, he suggested Sept. 28 and 29 as the tentative dates for the drone show trial run. The DC directed officials to ensure that both the Drone Show and Dasara Illumination are executed seamlessly. The main Drone Show will be held on Oct. 1 and Oct. 2.

"Torchlight Parade Grounds in Bannimantap will host the Torchlight Parade and the Dasara Air Show, and now the Drone Show as well. We must ensure that all three events are conducted in a hassle-free manner," he said.

The Department has written a letter to the Forest Department seeking permission for removal of plants, shrubs and other vegetation around the adjacent Saibaba temple so as to enable it to host football, kabaddi, kho-kho and handball contests there.

Meanwhile, the old hammer throw cage in athletics ground is getting a complete overhaul and the new cage is expected to get ready by Dasara sporting event. The other facilities that would come up in the stadium, include a renovated dining hall, a fully equipped kitchen, renovation of swimming pool, hostels etc., thus giving a completely new and refreshing look to the decades-old stadium.

Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports Assistant Director Bhaskar Nayak said that preparations are underway for the conduct of Dasara sports meet with a host of new facilities at Chamundi Vihar Stadium. In view of the State-level Dasara Sports Meet to be held in the city from Sept. 22 to 25, the authorities have been directed to complete all Taluk and District-level Sports Meet by Sept. 10, he added.

MLA inaugurates National Sports Day in city

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (MK&DM)- As part of the birth anniversary of hockey legend Major Dhyanchand (Aug. 29), the District Administration, in association with Zilla Panchayat, University of Mysore Physical Education Department and Mysuru District Amateur Cycling Association, celebrated National Sports Day at Chamundi Vihar Stadium in Nazarbad yesterday.

Dhyanchand

Speaking after inaugurating the event, N.R. MLA Tanveer Sait said students and youths should maintain their health by taking part in sporting activities, while also concentrating on their studies.

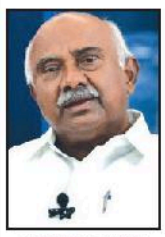
Cautioning the younger generation against falling prey to bad habits, wayward ways and addiction, Sait advised the students to grow in such a manner so as to make positive contributions to the society.

Noting that the youths should attempt at getting Government jobs by excelling in such sporting events, he suggested the students to foresee a bright future by putting up an exemplary performance in State, National and International-level sporting events.

Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports Assistant Director Bhaskar Nayak, Football Association District Secretary Manjunath, Nazarbad Police Inspector Mahadevaswamy and others were present.

'Banu Mushtaq, Deepa Bhasthi deserve equal honour'

Mysuru, Aug. 30 (GA&TRR)- MLC A.H. Vishwanath has welcomed the selection of International Booker Prize-winning author Banu Mushtaq to inaugurate this year's Dasara and suggested the State Government to also invite translator Deepa Bhasthi to Mysuru and felicitate her along with Banu Mushtaq, as a mark of unbiased honour for their achievements.



Vishwanath

Addressing media persons at Pathrakartara Bhavan in the city this afternoon, he said "Banu Mushtaq has got International Booker Prize conferred every year for a literary work. With this award, for her collection of stories 'Edeya Hanate', Banu Mushtaq has elevated Kannada language to international standards. Deepa Bhasthi, who translated Banu Mushtaq's Kannada book to English, has also been jointly awarded the Booker Prize. Banu Mushtaq has served the people of the State as an advocate, participated in farmer movements and those related to language policy and others," he said.

Criticising those who are opposing Banu Mushtaq's selection to inaugurate Dasara, the MLC said that India is a pluralistic country.

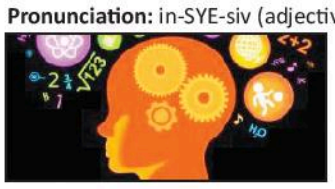
"Even those who had served as Ministers, are opposing her selection, which makes very little sense. Former MP Prathap Simha has been very vocal in criticising her selection. It doesn't behove well for a former MP to speak ill against a woman achiever like Banu Mushtaq," added Vishwanath, who advised Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Assembly R. Ashoka to exercise more restraint while speaking about the achiever.

'Chamundi Hill belongs to everybody. CM Siddaramaiah and District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa must officially speak about the selection of Banu to inaugurate Dasara. Along with Banu Mushtaq, the Government must also invite Deepa Bhasthi. Both must be felicitated in front of Mysore Palace as they deserve equal appreciation of their achievements," opined Vishwanath.

WORD OF THE DAY

Incisive

Pronunciation: in-SYE-siv (adjective)



Meaning: Incisive means "impressively direct and decisive." It is generally applied to either something communicated in a way that is very clear and direct, or to a person who is able to explain difficult ideas clearly and confidently.

Origin: An incisive person doesn't hem and haw — they get straight to the point. The original meaning of incisive, from around 1600, was "having a cutting edge or piercing point"; the modern meaning of "impressively direct and decisive" has been part of English since the mid-1800s. Incisive is a close relative of incisor, which refers to a front tooth typically adapted for cutting, so it's no surprise that incisive has a specific meaning in dentistry, describing that which is of, relating to, or situated near the incisors. Both incisive and incisor come from the Latin verb caedere, meaning "to cut." English is rich in cuttings from the fruitful stem of caedere: some examples to sink your teeth into are scissors, chisel, incise ("to cut into or engrave"), excise ("to remove by cutting"), incision ("cut" or "gash"), precise ("minutely exact"), and concise ("brief").

Example: "'Death Becomes Her' might be a combination of an uproarious camp sensibility and the grotesquely macabre, but it also contains incisive social critiques—of impossible beauty standards for women, the difficulties of aging, and the lengths people will go to maintain their youthful looks." — Christopher Wallenberg, The Boston Globe, 1 June 2025.

THE ODD WORD

Adynamia

Lack of strength or vigour (especially from illness).

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Fly off the handle

Meaning: The expression "Fly off the handle" is used to indicate that someone has become irrationally angry due to a complete loss of self-control.

Origin: "Fly off the handle" is an American phrase that alludes to the way that an axe head can fly off its handle if it becomes loose. The expression was first seen in print in 1834, in Thomas C. Haliburton's The Attaché; or, Sam Slick in England: "He flies right off the handle for nothing."

Example: 'Try not to make Sam mad. He has a tendency to fly off the handle at the slightest provocation.'
